Number: 1100188

Promulgated: 01 FEB 2011

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Section 3, Article IX-B of the 1987 Constitution provides that the "Civil Service Commission, as the central personnel agency of the Government, shall establish a career service and adopt measures to promote morale, efficiency, integrity, responsiveness, progressiveness, and courtesy in the civil service."

WHEREAS, the Commission under Section 12 (1) and (2), Book V, Title I-A of the Administrative Code of 1987 has the power and function to administer and enforce the constitutional and statutory provisions on the merit system for all levels and ranks of the Civil Service, and to prescribe, amend, and enforce rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of the Civil Service Law and other pertinent laws;

WHEREAS, pursuant to these mandates, the Commission issued CSC Resolution Nos. 01-0988, 03-0918 and 07-1138 dated June 4, 2001, August 28, 2003 and June 18, 2007, respectively, providing the guidelines on appointments issued by outgoing elective and appointive officials;

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court in Leah M. Nazareno, et al. vs. City Mayor Agustin Perdices, et al. (G.R. No. 181559 dated October 2, 2009) declared that the Commission, as the central personnel agency of the government, has statutory authority to establish rules and regulations to promote efficiency and professionalism in the civil service. The High Court also ruled therein that not all appointments issued after the elections by defeated officials are invalid especially those which have shown to have undergone the regular screening process, where the appointee is qualified for the position, when there is a need to fill up the vacancy and when the appointments are not in bulk.

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court has already issued an Entry of Judgment in the Nazareno case declaring it as final and executory on February 19, 2010;

WHEREAS, there is a need to update and amend existing rules on appointments issued by outgoing elective and appointive officials to harmonize them with the Supreme Court decision in the Nazareno case;

NOW THEREFORE, the Commission, pursuant to its constitutional and statutory mandates, hereby ISSUES and ADOPTS the following guidelines:

 - 1.2 The appointee has undergone the Personnel Selection Board (PSB) screening prior to the election ban. In this case, the appointing authority or agency shall submit the minutes of the PSB meetings and the evaluation report of the applicants.

If in the exigency of the service, the outgoing appointing authority, whether elective or appointive, opts to issue renewal (reappointment), temporary, casual and/or contractual appointments after the elections or before June 30, prior authority must be obtained from the concerned CSC Regional Office; otherwise, such appointments will be disapproved.

Such authority will be granted on the basis of validated need to fill up the positions immediately in order not to prejudice public service and/or endanger public safety.

All rules, regulations and issuances which are inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, amended or modified accordingly.
